

Faith and Life Online

My Catholic Faith Delivered's exciting version of Ignatius Press's Faith and Life Series is designed to meet our children where they learn. With engaging games, assessments, video prayers, Steve Ray Footprint's of God clips, and more, the content of each lesson is brought to life.

Our program frees up the concern of having to review or grade paper assessments, as well as giving a step by step real-time tool for parishes to help parents and students at home.

Each parent/student will be given their own account to view and experience each chapter. Their account is accessible anywhere at anytime from any mobile device. All of their progress and information is stored in the clouds so they never have to worry about losing their place in the chapter or saving information.

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI once stated that Faith and Life is "the best catechetical series in the German language."

Please view this packet to see visuals of the features mentioned and the structure of each lesson.

Words to Know

David

David : the second king of Israel, the son of Jesse of Bethlehem. He became famous when he killed Goliath, a gigantic Philistine soldier. He was a good king and people loved him. But he turned away from God to marry Bathsheba, by arranging for her husband to be killed. When God punished him, David was very sorry and turned back to God again.

The Shepherd Boy (Page 60)

God told Samuel to go to Jesse (the grandson of Ruth), who lived in Bethlehem. One of Jesse's sons would be the new king of Israel. When Samuel arrived, Jesse had his sons come before him, one at a time. When Samuel saw the first one, who was very tall and handsome, he thought, "Surely this must be the one the Lord wants for king!"

But the Lord said to Samuel, "God does not see as man sees. Man looks at the outward appearance. God sees what is in a man's heart."

So seven of Jesse's sons passed before Samuel. But each time Samuel said, "The Lord has not chosen this one." Finally he asked, "Are all your sons here?"

"There is still the youngest," Jesse replied, "but he is out with the sheep." Samuel commanded that he be sent for. Then the youngest, a handsome, upright, young boy with fine eyes, arrived. His name was David.

God spoke to Samuel, "This is the one who is going to be the new king. Anoint him." So Samuel took his horn of oil and anointed David. The Spirit of God was upon David from that day on.

At this time Saul was starting to lose his mind. An evil spirit was in him. His servants thought that some music would calm him. Word came to the palace about a young boy from Bethlehem who could play the harp beautifully. This was David. Saul sent for him, so David came to Saul and entered his service. David was such a good servant to Saul that Saul grew to love him. Whenever the evil spirit troubled Saul, David played the harp and Saul felt better.

TESTIMONY

“It really has been a very easy process for us to support and prioritize. And believe me, we are BUSY. We both work full time, we have two kids in sports, and we have a 1 year old to keep up with. We just make sure we dedicate Wednesdays to PSR. And it is a team effort by the whole family.

Here is why it has been easy for us. Kids understand computers. They want to be on the computer for any reason. As parents we need to feed their craving to use the computer and we need to make sure we do it in a constructive way. We were so happy to have an option for him to actually LEARN using the computer instead of just playing games. He usually does his homework while I'm making dinner. He uses the "voice" option that reads the course work to him while he reads along. This helps his reading skills and ensures he understands the material. At the same time, I can listen to what he is learning while I do something else. He can easily move through the lessons on his own and truly enjoys doing it. Honestly, he often understands lessons and stories from the bible even better than I do. He definitely absorbs it better than I did as a child. He gets so excited acing the quizzes at the end of each lesson too. He often gets so worked up in learning and taking the quizzes, that he can move through several lessons in one night.” – Parent

“The Faith and Life online course offered by mycatholicfaithdelivered.com is the best offsite catechism course I've found that works with our parish's religious education program.” Lisa Guarneri, DRE
